

Rules for Computer Use

Computers are available to the general public; however priority is given to Elwood Library Patrons.

Use is limited to one hour per day. Additional time is at the discretion of the Reference Librarian.

Printing costs -- first five pages free, after that 5 cents per page

Patrons 12 and under must have adult permission to use computers in the Adult area.

Computers are shut down 15 minutes before closing.

Use of the Library's computers for unlawful purposes is prohibited

Copying commercial software is in violation of copyright law

Using the Library's computer to harass other users or to interfere with their work is prohibited.

Adopted 1/22/04